There are 10 students on the Llandrillo Catering course nine women and 1 young man.

Students have come from a variety of partner's Job Centre plus, Working Links and the North Wales Women's Centre.

On the course they will have achieved 13 Open College Credits ranging from entry level to level 2 in catering.

Last week we visited the College for the Welsh Culinary Awards and the group also prepared a mouth-watering buffet for Welsh Skills Minister John Griffiths AM on his visit to Rhyl City Strategy.

An award ceremony has been organised for the 3rd April and certificates will be presented by Chris RuaneMP
