

OakTree Centre

Rhyl City Strategy held a successful day at the Oaktree Centre regarding training, volunteering and work opportunities in conjunction with Coleg Llandrillo Rhyl, Mental Health UK, Denbighshire Voluntary Services, Reed Employment and North Wales Energy Efficiency Advice Centre and a number of other organisations.

Over 40 people attended the event on 9th September, and enrolled on a number of courses being run by Llandrillo College, including Social Care, Business Administration and Class Room Assistants courses.

A number of people spoke with local employers and a number enrolled to volunteer with Denbighshire Voluntary Services.

Following their registration on the day, nine people are currently following a Social Care Course at the Community Centre in Marsh Road.

Staff from Coleg Llandrillo Rhyl speaking with members of the public. →

Staff from Mental Health Care UK along with staff from Pobl@Gwaith meeting members of the public.

